

AOLE	Subject	Year	Assessment
Languages, Literacy and Communication	French	8	To write a blog about pets including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a range of opinions • a range of connectives • a range of numbers • a range of adjectives • a range of reasons • writing in the present tense • information about other people's opinions.

Progression Table
Progression Indicator	Knowledge	Skills
Excelling	I can write in detail, using a wide range of opinions, connectives, adjectives, numbers and reasons to give extended responses to questions about my pets. I can write confidently in the present tense.	I can use a wide range of vocabulary to add detail to my blog. My spelling is accurate and I can write using a range of sentence structures.
Advancing	I can write in some detail, using a range of opinions, connectives, adjectives, numbers and reasons to give a detailed response about my pets. I can write in the present tense.	I use some range of vocabulary to add detail to my blog. My spelling is mostly accurate and I am starting to use a range of sentence structures.
Securing	I can understand and answer most questions about my pets using a limited range of opinions, connectives, adjectives, numbers and reasons. My tenses are mostly accurate.	I have tried to vary my use of vocabulary. I can use a bilingual dictionary to help with my spelling.
Beginning	I can use the present tense to describe basic details about my pet. My tenses are limited.	I can use high-frequency words accurately to form simple sentences.