

AOLE	Subject	Year	Assessment
Humanities	History	7	The Black Death

Progression Table
Progression Indicator	Knowledge	Skills
Excelling	I know how to analyse a source and provide context behind the purpose, origin and content of the source.	I can add historical context to a source by explaining what was happening during the time. I can analyse the purpose, context, content and origin of the source.
Advancing	I know most of the symptoms of the Black Death and I know how they progress each day. I know how people tried to stop the spread of the black death and can provide several examples.	I can describe most of the symptoms of the Black Death and provide key details in my description ranging from day to day. I am starting to analyse the purpose, context, content or origin of the source.
Securing	I know some of the symptoms of the Black Death and the effects. I know some ways in which people tried to stop the spread of the black death.	I can infer information from the source to help me describe how people tried to stop the Black Death from spreading. I can describe some of the symptoms of the Black Death.
Beginning	I can read a source to take out certain pieces of information about the Black Death.	I can infer information from one source to identify different facts about how the Black Death spread.

