

AOLE	Subject	Year	Assessment
Humanities	History	8	What were Henry VIII's problems?

Progression Table
Progression Indicator	Knowledge	Skills
Excelling	I know in detail why Henry had different problems and can explain how he solved each of these problems by offering sensible solutions and even start to consider the consequences of these actions. I know that some problems are bigger than others and rank these problems from most to least significant. I can link sources to each of Henry's problems in my answer helping provide detailed knowledge to my answer.	I have fully utilised the sources and my own knowledge to analyse Henry's various problems e.g. power, religion, marriage and money. I have used information from the sources and my own knowledge to develop these areas in detail. I have either fully utilised the writing frame or I have structured my own work. I have suggested a divorce/break with Rome and have considered the implications of such a move. I have also realised that breaking with Rome might cause subsequent problems for Henry. My solution shows detail and depth and I have identified the consequences.
Advancing	I know why Henry had different problems and can explain how he solved these problems by offering sensible solutions. I know that some problems are bigger than others. I can link several sources to my answer in helping provide detailed knowledge to my answer.	I have used the sources and my own knowledge and I have begun to analyse Henry's various problems e.g. power, religion, marriage and money. I have used information from the sources and my own knowledge to develop some of these areas in greater detail. I have fully utilised the writing frame. I have offered a sensible solution(s) to Henry's problems and I may have suggested divorce/break with Rome etc. However, my solution still lacks some detail and depth.
Securing	I know that Henry had different problems such as money, power and religion. I know how he solved one of these issues and offered a sensible solution. I have started to use the sources to help explain my answer.	I have started to use information from the sources/my own knowledge to look at the different problems but I haven't gone into too much detail. I have briefly commented on Henry's various problems e.g. power, religion, marriage and money. I have utilised the writing frame. I have offered a brief but sensible solution to Henry's problems. However, my solution still lacks detail and depth.
Beginning	I know that Henry had different problems such as money, power and religion. I can link a source to a problem.	I have either used the sources or my own knowledge to describe some of the main problems facing Henry VIII. I have given a brief outline of some of Henry's problems but haven't gone into too much detail. I have not looked at

		all the different problems. I have not fully utilised the writing frame. I have offered one simple solution to King Henry e.g. kill your wife, get a divorce etc.
--	--	---